Dear Sponsors:

It is with great pleasure that St. Mary's Assumption Albanian Orthodox Church of Worcester, MA announces our upcoming festival in June!

The festival is scheduled the weekend of June 5, 6 & 7, 2009. St. Mary's and its volunteers are working very hard to preserve our Albanian tradition, as well as, maintain our culture, language, and community. Our proud Albanian heritage comes alive with traditional music and dancing. We will have a fantastic weekend planned, full of family fun, great food, and entertainment. With anticipated attendance over 20,000 people and tens of thousands of Albanians living in the greater Worcester area, this is sure to be an event not to be missed and to showcase your business!

Here is a sampling of the publicity that will take place through the festival:

- A full-page ad prominently displayed in the Festival Ad Book
- Sponsor logo's on banners throughout the city of Worcester
- Sponsor logo's on banners in the main tent during the festival
- Sponsor logo's posted on the church's official website: www.stmarysalbanianchurch.org
- Public service announcements on radio stations
- Newspaper advertisements
- Television spots
- Billboard advertisement in Kelly Square
- The MC will mention sponsors throughout the festival

Please fill out the Sponsorship Contract Form and return it at your earliest convenience. We thank you in advance for your generous support in helping our church and community with continued growth. Wishing you success, health and happiness throughout the year.

Sincerely,

Rev. Dennis L. Nagi, Ph.D
